Brent Schindele | Captain Stahl

BRENT SCHINDELE is happy to return to the venue (and stellar production team) of the world premiere of IN A BOOTH AT CHASEN'S, where he played a young Ronald Reagan. Brent played Captain Von Trapp in the national touring production of THE SOUND OF MUSIC at the Orange County Performing Arts Center, originated the role of Johnny Blue in the world premiere of SOUTH STREET at Pasadena Playhouse and recently was nominated for the Desert Theatre League Award for his performance as Bill Clinton in HILLARY & CLINTON. He also appeared in the Broadway tour of JESUS CHRIST SUPERSTAR, Off-Broadway in THE MUSICAL OF MUSICALS: THE MUSICAL!, and as Tony in the national company of WEST SIDE STORY. A Dartmouth graduate, he has played Stanley Kowalski in A STREETCAR NAMED DESIRE, Franklin Shepard in MERRILY WE ROLL ALONG, the Kevin Costner role in the stage version of THE BODYGUARD, and the title roles in the films COLD COLD MAN and CALL ME DAN. For Erika and Jack, of course.
